EXPERIENCE

Full Stack Developer

Feb 2021 - November 2023

BlueCall (Full remote)

Implemented new features and maintained the app. Managed a team and refactored legacy codebase, integrating TypeScript, functional components, and hooks. Developed a new back-office system from scratch, utilizing Material-UI for the frontend and Mongoose for the RESTful backend service. Implemented a theming structure for styling and introduced unit testing using Jest and Testing Library for the frontend, and Mocha with Chai for the backend.

Front-end Developer

Aug 2016 - Aug 2019

Code D'azur, Barcelona (Spain)

Code d'Azur is a creative agency that produces digital campaigns and focuses on delivering services and products. My role was to develop fully responsive frontend websites. I produced static and dynamic websites that were integrated into their in-house CMS entirely PHP based. I've also successfully developed proofs of concepts in React Native apps, progressive web apps (PWA), Vue JS, and D3.js. React, Redux, Typescript, Javascript, Webpack, React Native, VueJS, D3.js, ESLint, SCSS.

Front-end Developer, Webdesigner

Feb 2013 - Jul 2015

Web Made Good, Lisbon (Portugal)

At Web Made Good I worked with a team that delivers projects for small and medium-sized businesses. I was in charge of a team of two developers, and it was our job to develop the front-end and responsive parts of the company's projects. HTML5, CSS3, Javascript, PHP, SCSS

Freelance

Feb 2013 - present

Wherever there's good coffee and wifi

Since I finished my degree I've always looked for new projects as a freelancer. I believe it's a good way to do projects "your way" and it helps you improve your skills (and save money for that trip you've been planning for months).

Front-end Developer, Webdesigner

Mar 2011 - Sep 2012

Dream Factory Network, Lisbon (Portugal)

At Dream Factory Network I was a jack of all trades. My responsibilities included creating website designs and being in charge of their full development and maintenance. I also had to develop digital and print content, edit video content, and create and send newsletters.
